

SEES Meeting Minutes for January 5, 2021

Meeting opening and prayer - 6:33pm

Minutes approved and recorded for December

Treasurer's Report

- Reimbursement checks being distributed
- Have had "3 for 3": over delivering on events (5K/pasta dinner, fall festival and Santa shop have all been successful and profitable.) Made $10-11k, $2500. in expenses; roughly $7500. went to school.

Asher - teachers grateful for gift cards and for BellGreeK faculty luncheon.

Secret Santa Shop

- Overall success!
- Pet toys were huge
- Running out for items on the day of; still not enough products
- Wish list was beneficial
- Good selection of items
- Fair amount of virtual students participated
- Ran out of wrapping and thankfully the "donut bags" were found to fill the void.

TAKEAWAYS for next year: crazy amount of emails (poor Maria!) if Middle School is included we need to increase the amount of crafts per grade. Regina suggested by 25. Regina will also chair next year again!

Raffle

- 50/50
- $565.00 made by the HSA
- The SEES Family that won the 50/50 raffle, donated the money back to SEES in honor of Judy Steigelman, mother of Turner, who passed away on December 14th.

Gingerbread houses and Auction

- $920.00 made
- Bidding was a bit difficult for the auction.
- Others would like to have participated and it seemed to be FB driven

- Next year, perhaps coordinate to run over the Santa Shop days; 1 ½ days or stop in the evening? Open bidding sooner
- Cardboard houses were donated 3 weeks ahead
- Take Away- make the auction opportunity more equal
- It was mentioned that it was a lot on the teachers

Virtual Pub Trivia

- Tentative Date is January 29th
- 3-4 rounds
- Questions may be like "are you smarter than a SEES student?" and SEES faculty history
- Catholic Schools Week?
- Karen - code for Papa John's as well. Same night.
- Want PJ code for the entire week of 24th. Code will work at most locations.
- Friends and family can join. Will get flyers out.

Contest - "best participation" or "best school spirit" - win merch credit or Papa Johns coupon

Thank you Thursdays set up by Erika

Spirit Store - chairperson - Jessica Arnest
