About the Instructor:

Hunter Parker is a proud SGHS alumna and former song contest leader who fell in love with performing in plays and musicals on the Stuart Avenue stage. An accomplished teaching artist, acting coach, and director, she has won several awards in her field working at a number of theater companies and schools on the east coast. She loves working with students of any age and has taught and directed children, teens, and adults at many places including SPARC, Hartford Stage, Eastern Connecticut State University, Rose of Athens Theatre, Saint Gertude High School, Goochland High School, and a number of elementary and middle schools as a guest artist in residence. She holds a BA in Theatre from Virginia Tech (acting focus), and a Master of Fine Arts in Theatre from the University of Georgia (directing focus.) www.hunterparker.net
